

Danny Pickens
Practice Director,
Enterprise Incident Management

Danny.Pickens@Optiv.com

OPTIV ROLE

As the practice director of Optiv's Enterprise Incident Management professional services team, Pickens is responsible for the direction and engagements of Optiv's incident management services, encompassing both proactive and reactive incident management operations.

EXPERIENCE

Danny Pickens has two decades of experience in the fields of military intelligence, counterterrorism and cyber security. Throughout his career, Mr. Pickens has spent time at the tactical, operational and strategic level of intelligence and cyber operations within the United States military and various divisions of the Department of Defense and other U.S. Government organizations, as well as private enterprise.

As the practice director of Optiv's Enterprise Incident Management professional services team, Mr. Pickens is responsible for the direction and engagements of Optiv's incident management services, encompassing both proactive and reactive incident management operations.

